2. NARRATIVE CONTINUED

Members of the Metropolitan Police Department's Homicide Branch initiated an investigation into the stabbing death of Kevin Blackwell Jr. During the course of the investigation, members interviewed a witness, hereafter referred to as W-1. W-1 reported that IT heard an argument between subjects in the 900 block of Burns Street, SE. W-1 stated that IT then observed at least three subjects assaulting the decedent. W-1 further advised that during the assault, the subjects were taking items from the decedent's person. W-1 stated that after the assault, the subjects then entered a beige car and fled the area. According to W-1, when IT first saw the beige vehicle during the assault, the vehicle was parked facing in a legal direction, as the 900 block Burns Street, SE is a one-way. At some point during the assault, the beige vehicle turned around facing in an illegal direction and waited for the subjects to enter the vehicle.

During the course of the investigation, it was learned by members of the Homicide Branch that an outgoing call was made and received by a Maryland 911 Operator from the decedent's cell phone that was not recovered at the scene of the offense. The call was recorded by the Prince George's County dispatch center. During the call, an apparent struggle is heard between the decedent and several subjects. While the struggle is ensuing, the voices of subjects are heard stating "stab this nigga up" and "work his pockets". As the offense is continuing, a voice is heard stating, "Give me your phone" and "Come up off that North Face cuz". Next, a voice is heard "Get in the fuckin car... C'mon before the police show up!" Then, a voice is heard, "Nah son, I'm bout to stab this nigga son." Towards the end of the call a voice states, look at the blood on this motherfucker and I got his phone. During the call, a voice is heard threatening to shoot the decedent.

Members of the Metropolitan Police Department Homicide Branch contacted the decedent's cell phone provider. The cell phone provider provided the MPD with a GPS location of the decedent's cell phone as latitude of 38.760967 and longitude of negative 76.824839 with a range of certainty of eight (8) meters. The entire eight (8) meters were within the premises of [REDACTED] Phillips Drive, Upper Marlboro, Maryland.

On Sunday, December 18, 2011, members from the Metropolitan Police Department Homicide Branch went to the above listed address and observed a 2003 four door beige Cadillac bearing Maryland registration plates "JGJ453" parked in the driveway to [REDACTED] Phillips Drive, Upper Marlboro, Maryland. Detectives observed what appeared to be blood stains on the left rear passenger door and what appeared to be blood on the rear passenger seat of the described Cadillac. The investigation also revealed that Harold M. Proctor who resides at [REDACTED] Phillips Drive, Upper Marlboro, MD, operated the above-described Cadillac without the owners permission during the time the decedent was attacked, robbed, and murdered.

With the assistance of the Prince Georges County Homicide Unit, a search warrant was obtained for the entire premises of [REDACTED] Phillips Drive, Upper Marlboro, Maryland on Sunday, December 18, 2011. Subsequently, the search warrant was executed for the premises. Found during the search was a LG Optimus cell phone in the room of Harold Maurice Proctor. The recovered cell phone bore electronic serial numbers (ESN) 270113180106839244 and A1000019685BCC. A family member of the decedent provided police with the original box that the cell phone was packaged in at the time of purchase. The ESN's of the cell phone box and recovered cell phone were an exact match in comparison. Also recovered from the above premises was a blue "North Face Jacket". The family of the decedent provided a description of a jacket the decedent owned, which is consistent with the jacket recovered during the search of the above listed premises.

Metropolitan Police Homicide Detectives interviewed a witness, hereafter referred to as W-2. W-2 was given the opportunity to listen to a portion of the 911 recording that was captured by the Prince George's County 911 Operator. While listening to the recording, W-2 identified a voice on the recording as Harold Proctor. W-2 further stated that IT observed Harold Proctor driving the 2003 4-door beige Cadillac bearing Maryland registration plates JGJ453 on December 18, 2011. W-2 has known Harold Proctor for at least a year. W-2 positively identified Harold Maurice Proctor from a confirmation photograph provided by the Maryland Department of Motor Vehicle Administration.

The stabbing death of Kevin Blackwell Jr. took place in the District of Columbia. Based on the facts, circumstances and police investigation, this affiant believes that probable cause exists for the issuance of a District of Columbia Superior Court Arrest Warrant charging Harold M. Proctor with Felony Murder While Armed.
